Sue,

How do you like the neat writing. Oh Well I'm just a poor Freshmer. Let this be a warning to the whole human race "if any one cheats me out of my turn I'll cut them to peices." Lots of luck to swell kid.

Judi Barrett

Susie,
your a pretty swell kidd & I love ya, Lina

Dear Sue,
Hi!
This year has really been fun - I sure did - and hope we can have as much fun with Physical Fitness next week.
Hope next year we'll have a nice chance a real together, again.
Love ya always
Cris

Dear Sue,
We sure have had fun this year. I guess it'll be pretty bad with the Lombard side gone through. You're a sweet kid!
Love ya
Greta

Sue,

I'm sure you'll be working on the Student Exchange Drive
with your partner and I know you'll get workers in your places in Elmhurst. Remember all of us at Elmhurst Post!
All good luck,
Anna

Sue,

Sue,

You'll forget the girl
in the country,
You'll forget the girl
in the town,
But you'll never forget
the girl who spoke,
your book, by your up-side-down.

Good luck always,
Joanne Bourne

DEDICATION

For his intellectual inspiration in the fields of writing and teaching, for his two decades of service to the PINNACLE, and for his contributions as head of the English department, we, the Class of 1959, dedicate the 1959 PINNACLE to Mr. Henry J. Firley.

Mr. Firley has been the only advisor of the PINNACLE in the 20 years it has been published. Before coming to Glenbard, "H.J.F." as he is affectionately known to his students, was the principal of Ocone High School in Ocone, Illinois. In his 28 years at Glenbard his contributions have ranged from teaching speech, journalism, and English literature to coaching football and debate.

Mr. Firley with the first and latest PINNACLES.

FOREWORD

GROWTH is a multiplier of images and mind;
Tongue of cornerstones singing towers
Of history; the seed of mustard
Brimming with hope of the early hour.
How fruitful, mounting as an evergreen spiral,
Like a mantle of corn greening the bulging
Shoulders of land; a manifestation
Of blueprint of thought into architecture
Of steel and stone; and a rarity
Of emotional warmth transcending
The charity of reason. It is Time borrowing another spring.
GROWTH is law and calloused palms,
Sweat and heartaches, the soaring of eagles.

Dear Sue,
Hope fortune to you. (Isn't that original) I really mean it. It has been swell knowing you for the past five years. I hope we have as much fun in the future as we have had in the past.

Love ya,

HONOR STUDENTS

Dave McCollum, Doug Walter, Teun Schoolwerth.

A metamorphosis has taken place. The freshmen of 1955 can scarcely be recognized as the seniors of 1959. Old ideas and fads have given way and changed completely as the Class of '59 stumbled down "Experience Road."

Their story is filled with painful although not unpleasant memories. They will remember their mistakes as freshmen, ambitions as sophomores, responsibilities as juniors, and omnipotence as seniors.

These years are significant ones to seniors. Never again will these same 437 people gather for so long under the same conditions.

BAND COUNCIL

DRUM MAJOR: Jim Farris. DRUM MAJORETTES: Joyce Kern, Judy Schenk, Mary Fran Britt, Jo Wedler, Jane Sampson.

PEP BAND

ORCHESTRA

SECOND BAND

Debbie Drew, state champion oboeist.

Under the direction of Mr. George Wall, band members began a successful year by marching at all home football games and setting the pace for several parades. On entering the concert season, the band again exhibited its skill by playing convos, a concert with the choir, the winter concert, at district and state contests, and by sending players to the All State Band and Orchestra and the West Suburban Music Festival. The band also played several concerts in Glen Ellyn and Lombard parks during the course of the summer.

The council was composed of Dave Hollinger, Debbie Drew, Jim Ferris, Paul Barthelemy, Bill Grant, Betsy Wendt, Herman Haas, and Dave Murphy.

Expanding the size and format of the paper and putting out a special 40th Anniversary issue were two of the main projects of the Glen Bard staff during 1958-59. The paper was expanded to five columns by 16¼ inches, standard tabloid size.

Directing the publication of the bi-weekly paper were Cliff Argue, managing editor; Debbie Drew and Dick Spencer, associate editors; and Janet Whittaker, news editor. Handling the business end were Judy Smith, business manager and Ruth Steele, circulation manager. Miss Helen McConnell advised the editorial staff and Mr. Roger Bernasek advised the business staff.

This moan is usually raised a least once a semester by one o the varsity ace athletes. What th ace doesn't realize is that that ol "hard guy" in many cases is on of Glenbard's most respecte coaches of the past.

Mr. L. H. Burnett, mathemati teacher and James Cook, Gle bard's athletic director, are tw such coaches.

Mr. Cook started his tenure a a Bard mentor in 1942, a familia date to most juniors, who wer born that year. Coaching foo ball until 1950, Mr. Cook establish ed an enviable record, since h teams finished in the first div sion seven out of eight years.

AERONAUTS

The Aeronautics Club is designed to bring boys who have the hobby of building and flying model airplanes together. When weather permits, the club members have flying meets on week ends and holidays. During the winter months, the club sponsored several indoor flying meets in the gymnasium.

The officers of the club are: President, Tom Grimm; Vice-president, Don Multerer; Secretary-treasurer, Jim Munsterman. Mr. Magor was the faculty sponsor.

ASTRONOMY CLUB

The almost instinctive groping of man toward understanding mastery of space since the last war demands a greater grasp of astronomy. At Glenbard this trend is demonstrated by the Astronomy Club.

Organized in the fall of this school year, its real activities began with a club field trip to Adler Planetarium. In February many of the members began building their own telescopes. Several other members had begun remodeling the school's six inch telescope. The club sponsored by Mr. Gronewald may even attempt to build a new telescope for the school.

L'ALLIANCE FRANCAISE

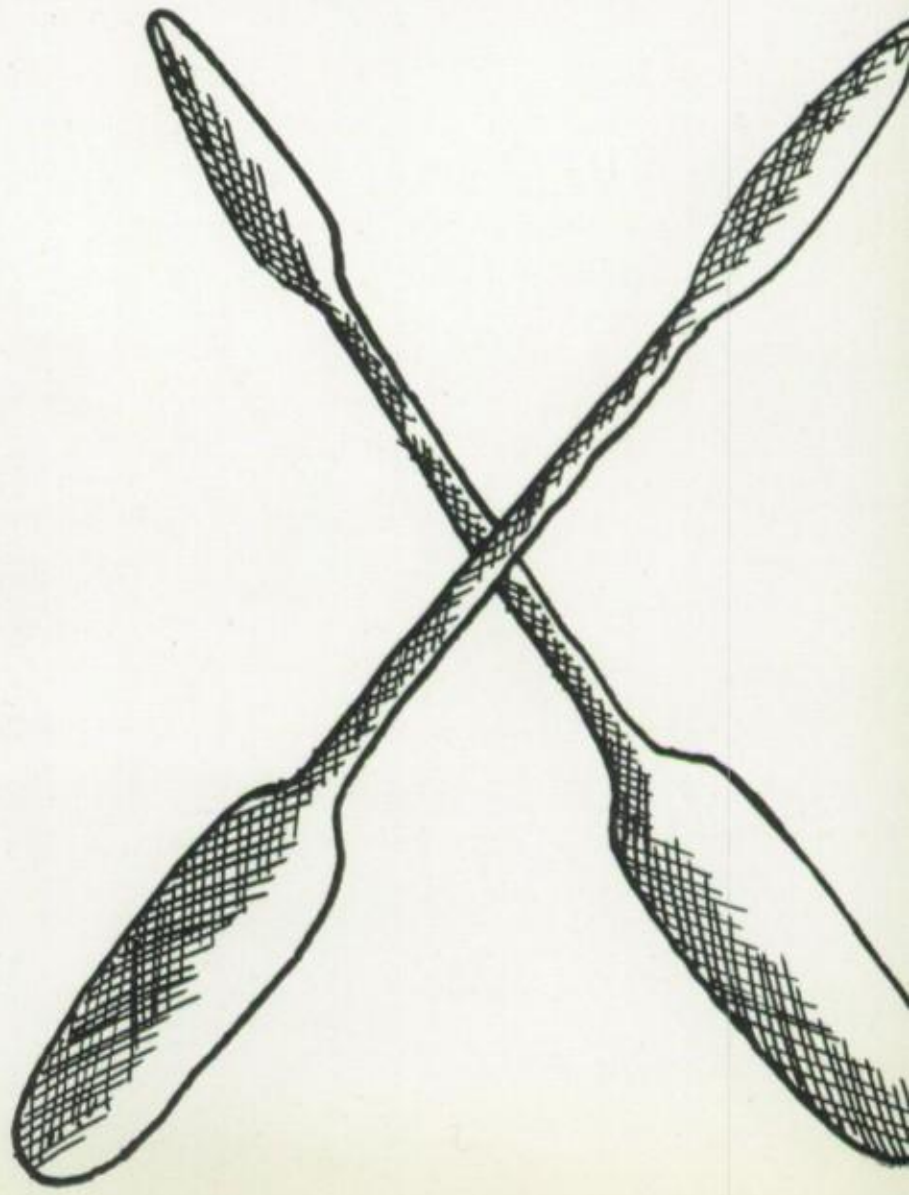
French Club, or l'Alliance Francaise in the vernacular, one of the oldest of Glenbard's clubs, began its fifth Decade by entering an outstanding float in the annual Homecoming parade. Speakers from France and Indo-China were the highlights of several meetings, while slides were shown at others. The officers for this year were Sue Howard, Gay Spillman, Karen McNeil, and Jane Sampson.

Jane Sampson, Sue Howard, Gay Spillman, Karen McNeil.

BOAT CLUB

The old salts of Glenbard, in banding together, have successfully completed their first year at Glenbard. With Mr. Britton as the club advisor, the members of the newly formed Boat Club strove to fulfill their purpose—to promote interest and enjoyment in boating knowledge of safety, and to develop navigational skills for better and safer boating, throughout the school year. Boasting boats from 4 to 36 feet in length, they took two spring cruises. The prospective member must be able to swim, and either own his own boat, or become a partner in ownership with a present member. During the year the club filled many of its meetings with movies on different fields of boating.

The officers' posts were filled this year by Steve Toussaint, Commodore; Greg Heier, Vice Commodore; Judy Biggart, Secretary; Paula Bramsen, Treasurer; and Pete Cross, Rear Commodore.

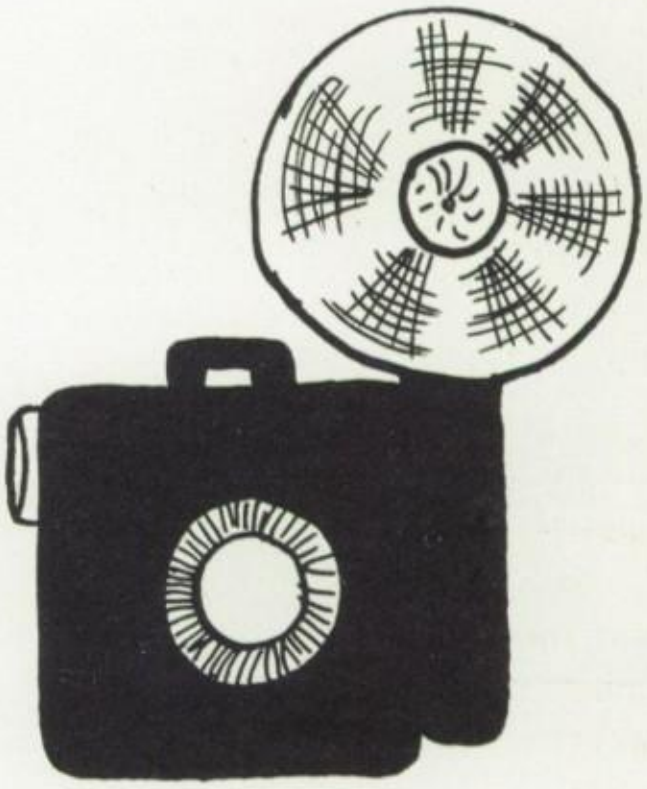


CAMERA CLUB

Camera Club has a two-fold purpose: that of sharing information concerning photography, and that of promoting interest in photography at Glenbard.

The members of Camera Club believe that photography can be as much of an art as painting. To this end they share information about the latest methods of taking and developing pictures. Instruction and introduction to new types of equipment were also included in Camera Club's program this year. Field trips to points of photographic interest proved popular.

Camera Club's officers for 1958-59 were Dave Petersen, president; Bruce Kroger, vice-president; Katy Jensen, secretary-treasurer; and advisor, Mr. Bernasek.



CAMPUS COUNCIL

To maintain and improve the appearance and condition of our campus, school building, and other school property is the purpose of Campus Council, a newly formed organization consisting of twelve seniors and five juniors.

This past year Campus Council has written a set of rules pertaining to the school, campus, and neighboring residential area, organized a monitoring system before school and during all four lunch periods in the cafeteria and elsewhere, opened Hall 412 for study at 7:30 every morning, made fire exit signs for all the rooms, taped off aisles in front of the office, and helped clean up after home football games. This spring Campus Council held a Clean-Up Day in an effort to make the campus look more beautiful.

In addition to the Council, a Student Court, composed of the officers and monitor heads, was set up to judge violations of any council rules and to give penalties for these offenses. Officers were Chuck Gelhaar, president; Jim Brubaker, vice-president, and Georgia Hansen, secretary-treasurer. Mr. Dutch was the advisor.

STUDENT COURT

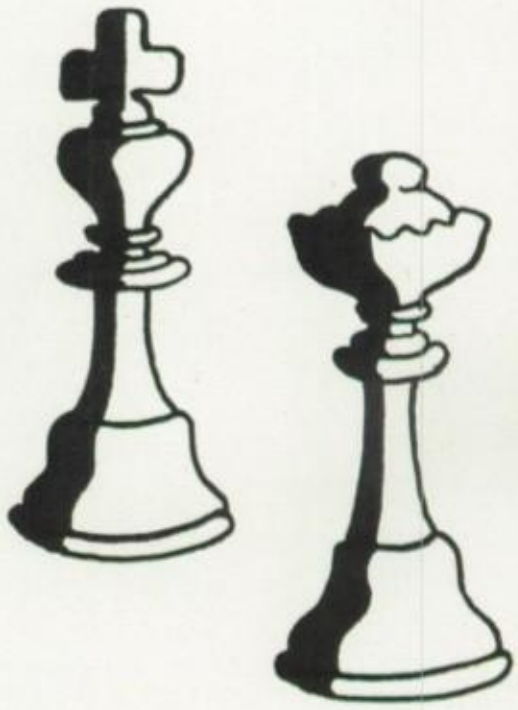
CHESS CLUB



To promote interest in chess is the main aim of all members of Chess Club. No previous knowledge of chess is required in order to join as instruction is held for beginners. This year's members instituted one major change in the activities of the club; they helped to form a tri-school league with Downers Grove and Wheaton.

Helping to provide keen competition for all Glenbard's chess enthusiasts were this year's officers: Bill Picha, president; Russ Wallace, vice-president; Paul Shroder, secretary-treasurer, and; Bob Stoothoff, sergeant-at-arms. Advisor this year was Mr. Kietzman.

CURRENT HISTORY CLUB

The purposes of Current History Club are (1) to achieve a better understanding of all countries and their problems; and (2) to study and discuss current events.

To fulfill these aims and objectives, they have had such guest speakers as Miss Snow, who showed slides of her trip through South America; Sylvia Boynton, who discussed the East-West Zone problem in Germany; and Linda Yuccas, who told of her experiences in Mexico. Such world problems as the Quemoy crisis were also discussed.

Having a membership of over fifty contributed to making this one of the club's most fruitful years. This year's activities were under the direction of President Gary Rivers, Secretary-treasurer Bonnie Baker, and Advisor Miss Diers.

DEBATE CLUB

Last November 11th at 3:29 p.m., Glenbard's debate squad was "born." Each Tuesday afternoon since then, the walls of room 303 have rung with this year's proposition: "Resolved: that the United States should adopt the essential features of the British system of education."

Just as in the case of the music and athletic departments, the debate squad has the opportunity to honor Glenbard; for once the national high school debate topic has been announced for the year, debate teams begin inter-scholastic competition. Each year the National Forensics League offers competition on a sectional, district, state, and even national level.

Debate is not only a form of competition, but also a type of education—a tool for learning how to think. Debaters are taught to grasp the important issues of a question, to catch fallacies in an argument, and to reason logically and effectively.

With Miss Sara Anne Robertson as their coach, the debate squad hopes to help fill Glenbard's trophy case and to offer this educational experience to more students each year.

ELECTRONICS CLUB

The fourth year of Electronics Club sparked into activity in 1959. The main aim of the club is to promote interest and increase understanding of electronics, as well as to learn the operation and use of the available equipment. To become a member, one must have a genuine interest in electronics. Among the many interesting projects held this year were building a club radio station, adding home-made equipment to the shop, and learning basic radio theory. A code course for prospective radio amateurs was given at the beginning of the year. President Bob Clark, along with Vice president Kurt Irmiter, Secretary Wayne Kramer, Treasurer Ralph Scalice, and the coaching of the Club's sponsor, Mr. Dekan, made the club a real success.

FUTURE TEACHERS

As a new club—guided by President Janice Jared; vice-president Kendall Ridgway; Secretary-treasurer Margie Bomilow, and; Sponsor-advisor Miss Eleanore M. Dowling—the Fred L. Biester F.T.A. club has had a worthwhile year.

Throughout the year, members have attended workshops and meetings on county and regional levels, including the state convention. They have had several guest speakers as well as talks by some of their own members. All meetings were devoted to the field of education.

As a service club, F.T.A. has high hopes that next year, it will be able to inaugurate several programs whereby qualified members can gain valuable teaching experience.

Kendall Ridgway; Janice Jared; Margie Bromilow.

GIRL SCOUTS

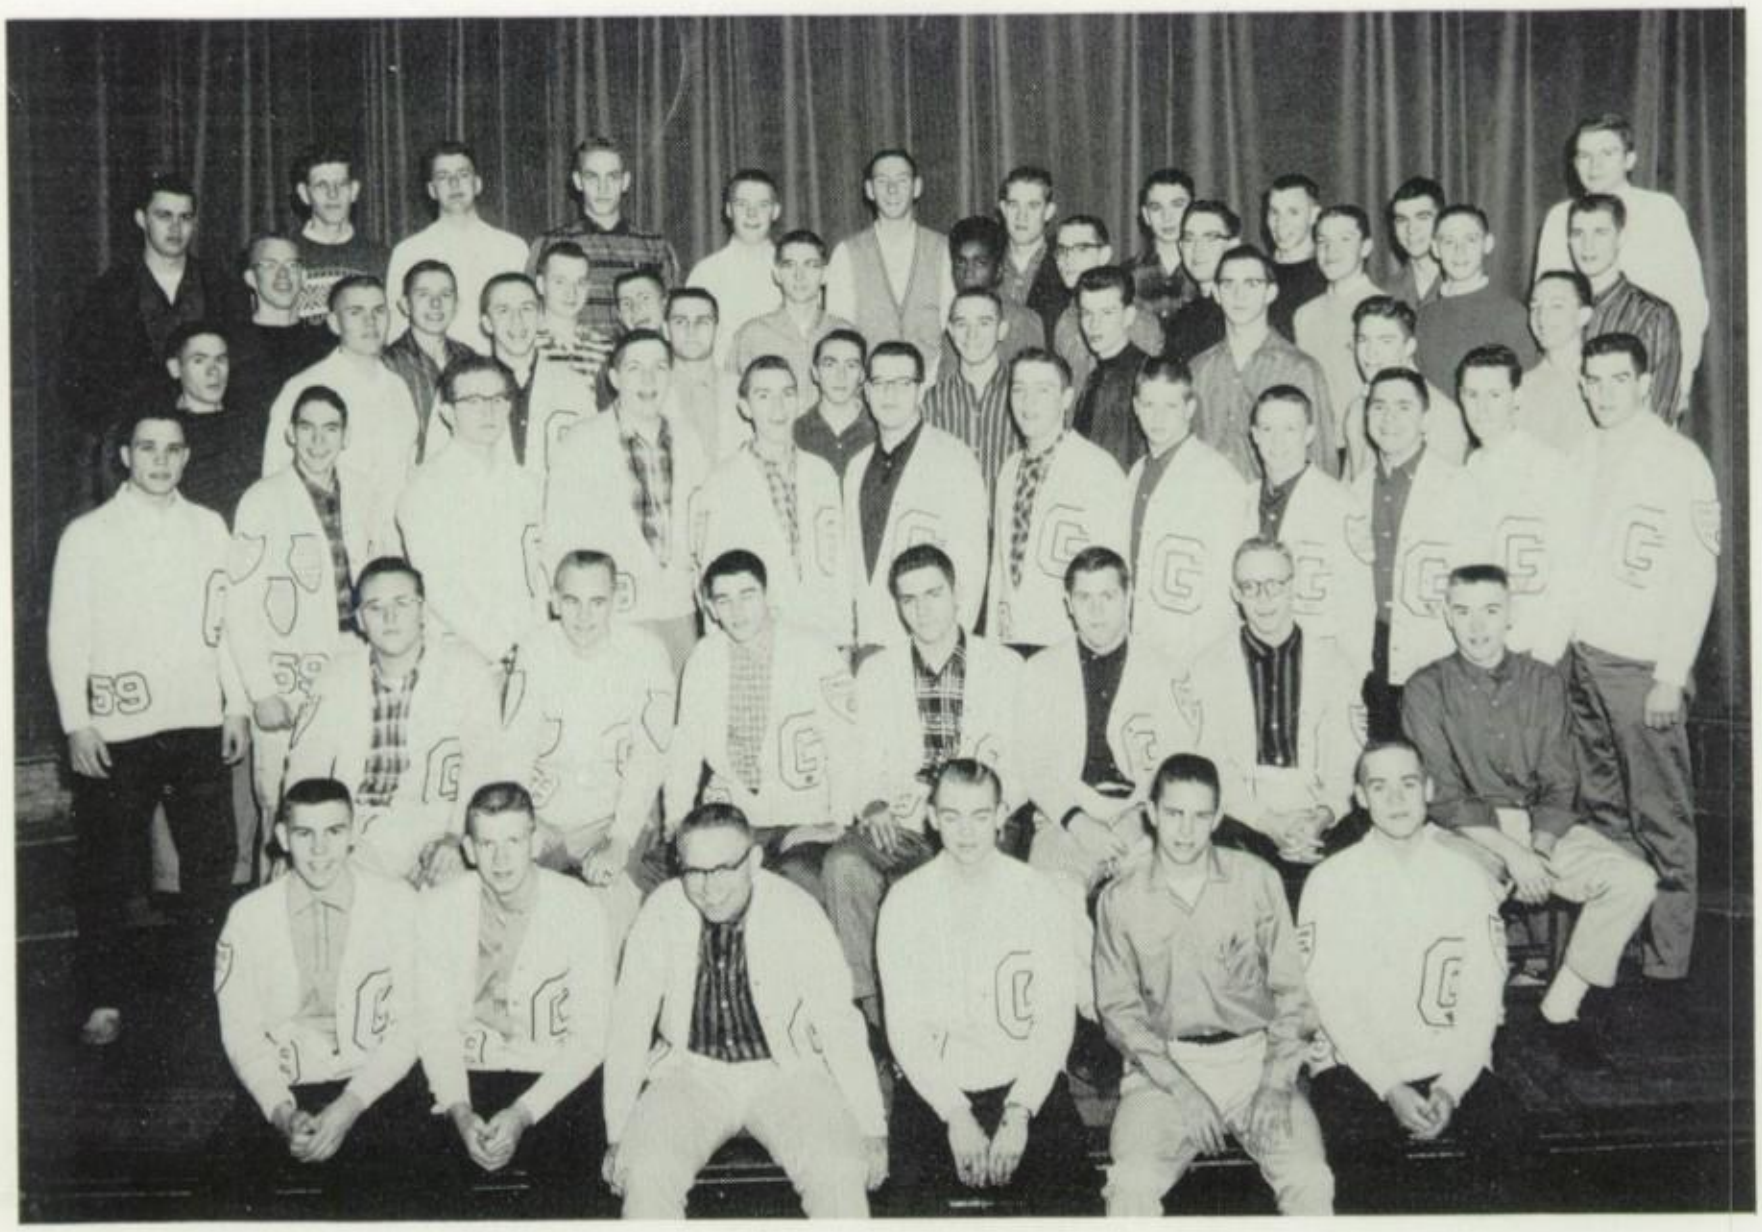
In September, 1958, the Senior Girl Scouts at Glenbard joined together to form a club known as Glenbard Senior Girl Scouts. This club has no dues or membership fees. The only requirement for membership is that a girl be active in some form of Girl Scouting.

The Girl Scout Club was formed as a service organization, to aid Glenbard in any way possible.

Senior Girl Scouts has two advisors; Mrs. Moore, advisor representing DuPage County Girl Scout Council, and Mrs. Arlen, advisor for Glenbard. The two work together with the officers and board to benefit the club and school.

This year's officers were: president, Diane Golsan; vice-president, Peggy Williamson; secretary, Joan Barrett; and program chairman, Peggy Barstow.

G-CLUB



G-Club is composed of all boys who have earned the official varsity letter. The object of the club is to provide an honorary organization for Glenbard athletes and to encourage a high type of team moral. The club is also dedicated to keep sportsmanship at a high plane at all athletic contests. Some of the duties of G-Club are to keep order at the pep convos, to hold ropes and maintain order at home basketball games, and to sponsor the G-Club Faculty basketball game.

Officers for this year were Terry Thomas, President; Dave Zinn, Vice-president; John Pond, Secretary-treasurer, and; Bruce Spencer, Sergeant-at-arms. The club was advised by Mr. Cook and Mr. Smith.

SPORTS HEADS

"To promote better sportsmanship" is the purpose of the Girls' Athletic Association. The members of G.A.A. participate in such sports as basketball, bowling, volleyball, hockey, speed-a-way, and other indoor and outdoor sports.

Highlighting G.A.A.'s year were its copping of first place honors in the Homecoming float contest, sponsoring a "girls-pay-for-it" dance, "The Land of Oz," and holding the annual Dad and Daughter Banquet. The major fund raising project during the year was the publishing of the V.I.P. At the end of the year a leaders' swimming party was held.

Officers on the executive council this year were Bonnie Kelly, President; Barb Dukelow, Vice-President; Gayle Johnson, Secretary; and Sue Willard, Treasurer.

Faculty advisors were Mrs. Sliker and Mrs. Arlen. Mrs. Neumann and Mrs. Roby assisted with sports.

HELLADIANS

Officers for the '58-'59 year have been senior Will Stanton, president; junior Anne Moore, vice president; junior Karen Nowack, secretary; and senior Dick Spencer, treasurer. Miss Ruth Ely is the club advisor.

Man in space and space within the man. Man . . . and space . . . both are a part of creative art, both a part of Helladians. Glenbard students who have made outstanding contributions to the field of fine arts are united in this honor society. They strive to better Glenbard and to promote a greater interest in art appreciation.

To become a member, the student must have the unsolicited recommendation of two faculty members, and the approval of the club council. Membership in Helladians consists of serving the school rather than the club . . . not so much of attending meetings or doing projects for points, but in contributing to art by providing hall decorations and lovely stained-glass window at Christmas, and to other organizations by making posters and working on dance and play decorations.

INTER-CLUB COUNCIL

Janet Ratke; Connie Malm; Nancy Schanlaber; Nancy Fricke; Barb Dukelow; Ann Rogers, Carol Stone; Carol Widmer; Sheila O'Neill; Jane Anderson; Barb Dugan; Linda Smith; Barb Thompson.

The main function of Inter-Club Council is to co-ordinate the activities of Pep Club, G.A.A., Y-Teens, and Student Council. Organized in 1955, the membership consists of four representatives from each of the girls' clubs and one representative from Student Council.

The Big and Little Sister program in the fall started the year's activities. The holly sale at Christmas and the annual Alumni Tea were just part of the many other activities planned by Inter-Club.

First semester Chairman, Nancy Fricke, was assisted by Secretary-treasurer Vicki Kempkes. Serving as officers for the second semester were Chairman Nancy Schanlaber and Secretary-treasurer Jane Anderson.

Linda Mann; Marge Gliessman; Pat Coleman; Nancy Poole; Debbie Drew; Karen Westrom; Sharon Schoff; Sandy Peterson.

This year Junior Red Cross, under the guidance of Mrs. Davis and the Red Cross office in Chicago, has again proven to be one of Glenbard's most helpful and worthy clubs. Its purpose is simply expressed by its motto—"We Serve".

This year Junior Red Cross served others by providing Christmas stockings, candy favors, Easter baskets and games for needy children. To aid our country, J. R. C. made articles of clothing and toys which were placed in the Red Cross disaster closet. As Junior Red Cross helped others, it also served Glenbard by establishing a reputation of good will and generosity.

Students who worked in the Junior Red Cross developed a sense of responsibility, co-operation, and leadership. They furthered better human relations throughout the world by expressing their sympathy and friendliness by sending gift boxes, clothing, and a correspondence album overseas.

This year's officers were Linda Mann, President; Sharon Schoff, Vice-president; Sandy Peterson, Recording Secretary; Marge Gliessman, Corresponding Secretary; Debbie Drew, Treasurer; Nancy Poole, Project Chairman; Pat Coleman, Assistant Project Chairman; Karen Westrom, Ways and Means Chairman; and Karen King, Art Chairman.

Hardy Wieting

Carol Jordan

Ariel Eaton

Mike Menard

Arlene Kirkendall

Lee Goltermann

Upperclassmen who demonstrated excellent dramatic ability by putting on a three-to-five minute sketch during "Tryout Week" were admitted to Kits and Skits. Kits and Skits is the only dramatic club which permits budding young actors and actresses to practice their art.

Throughout the year, the members were given the responsibility of providing the entertainment for the regular monthly meetings. The annual banquet was held in March, and the club presented a convo play in May. Also, Kits and Skits, in conjunction with Thespians, awarded a scholarship to the most deserving member.

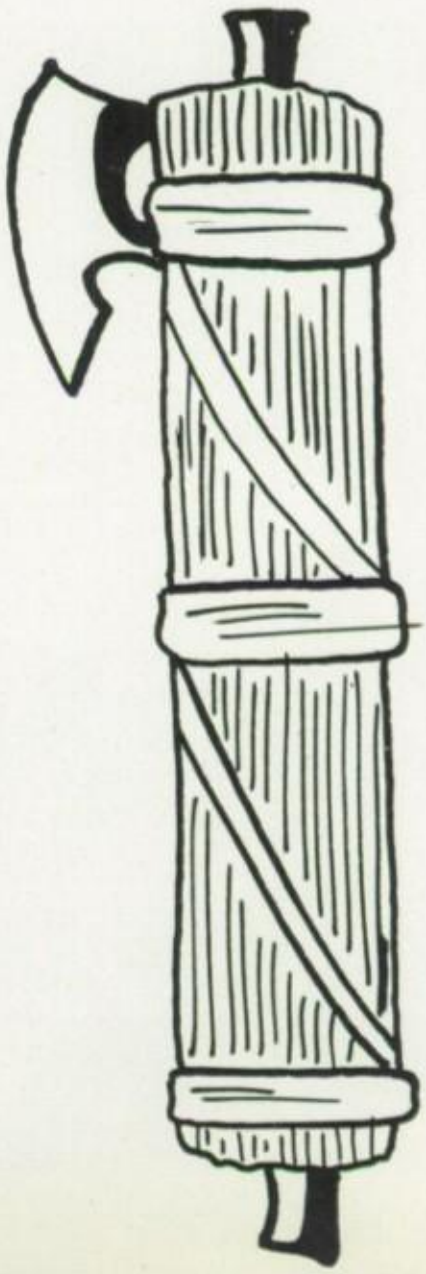
In charge of the productions this year were Hardy Wieting, president; Arlene Kirkendall, vice-president; Carol Jordan, secretary-treasurer; Mike Menard, sergeant-at-arms; Ariel Eaton, senior program chairman; and Lee Goltermann, junior program chairman. Miss F. Homrighous and Mrs. S. McNichols served as faculty advisors.

LATIN CLUB

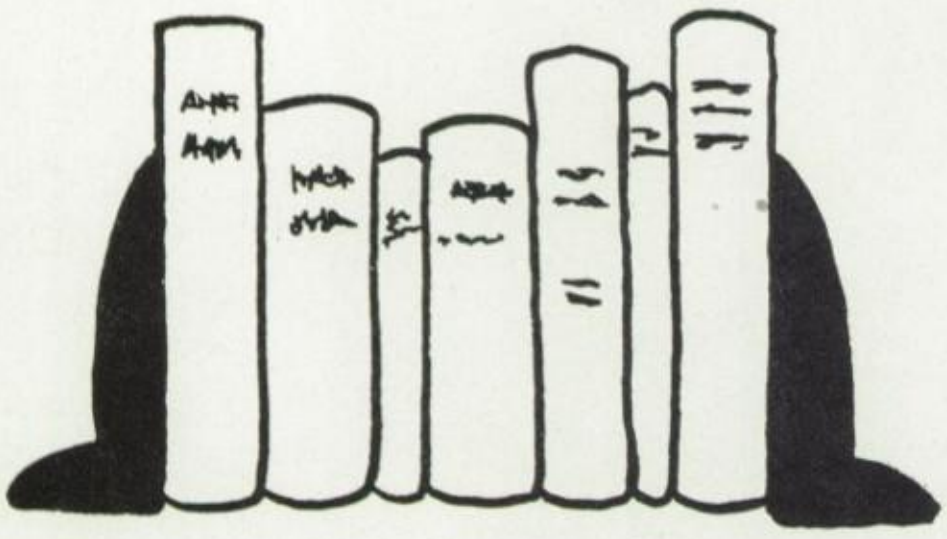
Each year prospective members of Latin Club, clad in Roman togas or stolas, crowned with wreaths of flowers or leaves, and bearing the famous S.P.Q.R. appear in the halls of Glenbard. Students enrolled in Latin III and IV may earn membership in this club.

In order to enrich the study of Latin, to give a good classical background for modern living, and to present the usefulness of the classics in an informal way, Latin Club engages in many activities. The monthly meetings consist of various contests, games, and other activities, based on the history, mythology, literature, philosophy, and government of ancient Greeks and Romans. Latin Club also takes part in school projects, sells at games and enters a float each year in the Homecoming parade.

Officers this year were Kent Shifferd, president; Pam Wildish, vice-president; Cathy Ayers, secretary; and Georgia Hansen, treasurer. Miss Delpha Patterson is the club's advisor.



LIBRARIANS



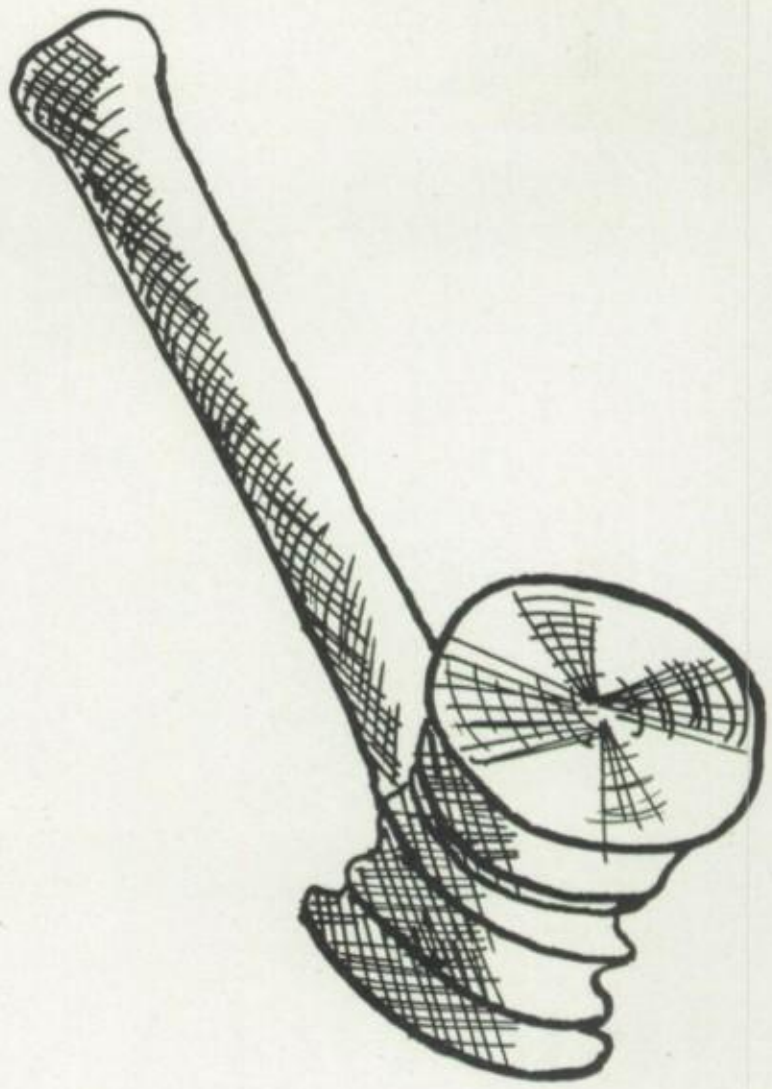
Although not organized as a club, student librarians continued this year to serve the students and faculty of Glenbard in the library. Helping at the check-out desk, shelving books, and sending the inevitable overdue passes, they made the operation of an efficient library possible. Miss Douglas and Mrs. Smith directed the student help.

MASQUE & GAVEL

During its nineteenth year, Glenbard's Masque and Gavel Society sponsored an Interpretive Reading Contest with Thespians, took a field trip to Chicago to attend the theater, campaigned during Good Speech Week, and held regular meetings in an effort "To promote good speech".

Two initiations are held each year for outstanding oral work both in class and in extra-curricular activities.

This honorary speech society was led by Bob Perkins, president; Joe Kelly, vice-president; and Ann Ryan, secretary-treasurer. The very capable sponsor was Mrs. Kronsagen.



MATH CLUB

$$\int \frac{dx}{(a^2-x^2)^{\frac{3}{2}}} =$$

Glenbard's Math Club, a member of the national mathematics society, Mu Alpha Theta, provides an opportunity for members to learn about areas of mathematics not ordinarily covered in the classroom. Members stress the point that the club is not made up of a bunch of squares and cubes but of people interested in mathematics.

Leading Math Club this year were head computers Jack Anderson, president; Arthur Jensen, vice-president; Donna Piontkowski, secretary-treasurer, and; Bob Stoothoff, sergeant-at-arms. Miss Faist was faculty advisor.

PAN AMERICAN LEAGUE

The main function of Pan American League is to better acquaint the Spanish students of Glenbard with the Spanish speaking countries. Members have tried to accomplish this through programs featuring guest speakers who have visited Mexico, a talk by Glenbard's foreign exchange student Llull Sala, and some very interesting movies. They climaxed their '58-'59 schedule with a fiesta prepared in the best Spanish tradition.

Head "senorita" Gay Galle was assisted by Sara Eddy, vice-president; Beth Colley, secretary-treasurer; Karen Murphy, program chairman, and; Laurie Gunderson, art chairman. Miss Shuck and Miss Britton served as advisors.

To promote school spirit and to extend good sportsmanship is Pep Club's two-fold purpose. Since it was organized several years ago, Pep Club members have been faithfully attending football and basketball games. The activities of Pep Club this year were: the torch-light parade, the homecoming float, the annual barbecue, Pep Week, and the new Pep Section where all members must wear a special Pep badge.

Officers for this year were: Connie Malm, president; Penny West, vice-president; Kay Hall, secretary; Dee Regan, treasurer; and freshman, sophomore, junior, and senior class heads, Anna Hollinger, Sue Prater, Carol Hesselgrave, and Nancy Schonlabor. Miss McMahon and Miss Faist served as sponsors of Pep Club.

RAILROAD CLUB

The same year that Casey Jones came to television, The Glenbard Society of Ferro-equinologists came of age, celebrating its fourth year at Glenbard.

The high point of this year's promotion of prototype and model railroading was the Four Spot (pictured here). This venerable old lady approached the immortality of the "Lord Baltimore" and the "General," as she raced through Lombard and Glen Ellyn at Homecoming '58.

Brass-hatted by President Greg Heier, Vice-president John Fernald, Secretary Paul Harkess, Treasurer Lee Faulkner and Sergeant-at-arms Dave Murphy, the society had several other memorable activities: two guest speakers, model equipment operating night, a field trip to the Santa Fe Railroad's Passenger station. Mr. Becwar has been advisor for the past four railroading years.

SCIENCE CLUB

In each passing day, new and profound ideas are revealed to us through science. The Glenbard Science Club has endeavored to sample these thoughts and ideas through interesting speakers, films, and demonstrations. A demonstration or experiment by a club member was presented at each meeting. Attempting to cover as much of the vast subject matter available as possible, the Science Club ventured into such fields as atomic energy, nuclear physics, endocrinology, mineralogy, and taxidermy.

This year's officers were: President Jerry Molitor; Vice-president Dean Smith; Secretary Barry Raff, and; Treasurer Paul Barthelemy. Advisors were Mr. Morton and Mr. Gibson.

SMOKING COUNCIL

The primary purpose of Smoking Council is to discourage smoking on the school grounds before, during, and after school, on all school days. The Council members, who are chosen by the student body patrol the grounds, and anyone caught smoking is brought into Council on Wednesday morning to be punished. The punishment is in the form of detentions, the number of detentions depending on the number of offenses which the violator has against him in the council records. This year Council has also patrolled the building and the new gym area between periods. The Council—which is unique in that it has no officers—has Mr. Miller as faculty advisor.

SQUARE DANCE CLUB

The third Saturday night of each month found the members of Square Dance Club really "swingin' along" as they learned square dances, polkas, and reels with the help of their caller, Mr. Frank Greene. Among the highlights of the year's activities were a visit to York's square dance club and an old-fashioned hobo dinner which preceded one of the monthly meetings.

Rich Teppema; Steve Capel; Merry Macke; Marge Craddock; Mary Hales.

Officers were Steve Capel, president; Rich Teppema, vice-president; Mary Hales, secretary, and; Merry Macke, treasurer. They were assisted by faculty advisors Mr. Magor and Mr. Don Patterson.

THESPIANS

If old Thespis could return from the dim past of 600 B.C., he would be proud to see his name given to the national honorary dramatic society, Thespians. Glenbard's troupe 233, which was organized in 1933 by Miss Rachel Whitfield, is affiliated with nearly 2,000 chapters in the U. S.

Because the National Thespian Society is an honorary club throughout the country, students are qualified to become members only if they fulfill the requirements specified in the laws: playing one major or two minor roles in a school presentation or doing outstanding work on a production committee. To inspire students in drama, Thespians gives a yearly scholarship to one of its outstanding members.

Trying to promote good drama all year around, they attended a five-day national conference at Purdue, Indiana, last summer. During the school they sponsored the Sweater Hop, "Dagger Drag", entered a float in the Homecoming parade with Kits and Skits and Masque and Gavel, worked on the senior play, Skin of Our Teeth, participated in the regional conference at Wheaton, Illinois, and took a field trip with Masque and Gavel to see "Music Man".

Directing this year's activities were Janet Whittaker, president; Terry Groener, vice-president; Joyce Aigner, secretary-treasurer; and Mr. Paul Yaeger, faculty advisor.

STUDENT COUNCIL

As Glenbard has grown, so has Student Council. In 1944 the first Student Council, called "Ipso Facto", was formed. It was composed of the club presidents and met approximately once a month, after school.

As the council grew it took on more responsibilities and duties. At present Student Council's most important projects include publishing "Castle Keys", planning the Homecoming weekend, decorating the school at Christmas, sponsoring a Foreign Exchange Student, producing the Variety Show, and organizing Student Government Day.

Student Council members are now elected by the student body: first, to serve as a link between students, faculty, and administration; and second, to act as co-ordinator of school activities.

Seven representatives from each of the senior, junior, and sophomore classes comprise Student Council. The organization is divided into seven permanent committees; Publicity, Courtesy, Foreign Exchange Student, Social and Participation, Points and Elections, Drives and Tickets, and Bulletin Board.

Dick Cassidy, president; Mike Campbell, vice - president; Shirley Unrath, secretary; and, Teun Schoolwerth, treasurer; served as officers during this past year. Assisting Council as advisors were Mr. William Rider, Mr. Stan Yohe, and Mr. David Miller.

Y-TEENS

Last October soft candlelight filled the auditorium at the thirty-seventh Y-Teens initiation ceremony. Dressed in navy and white, just as the first members, the girls pledged themselves to Y-Teens.

Among the club's monthly service projects this year were making tray favors and bed-side bags for hospitalized veterans and filling Christmas stockings for children in orphanages. In December, the Christmas season at Glenbard opened with the beautiful Candlelight Service, put on by Y-Teens and Hi-Y. The two clubs also worked together on the annual Heart Hop in February. Other projects were the Big and Little Sister Tea; the Scavenger Hunt; and the Spring Style Show. The year concluded on a happy note with the Mother-Daughter Banquet at which the officers for the following year were installed.

Guiding the club this year were Sherry H. Johnson, president; Nancy Fricke, vice-president; Sherry Rogers, Secretary; Carol Widmer, treasurer, and Linnea Asplind, art chairman. The advisors were Miss Edythe Sinden and Miss Evelyn Kittlesby.

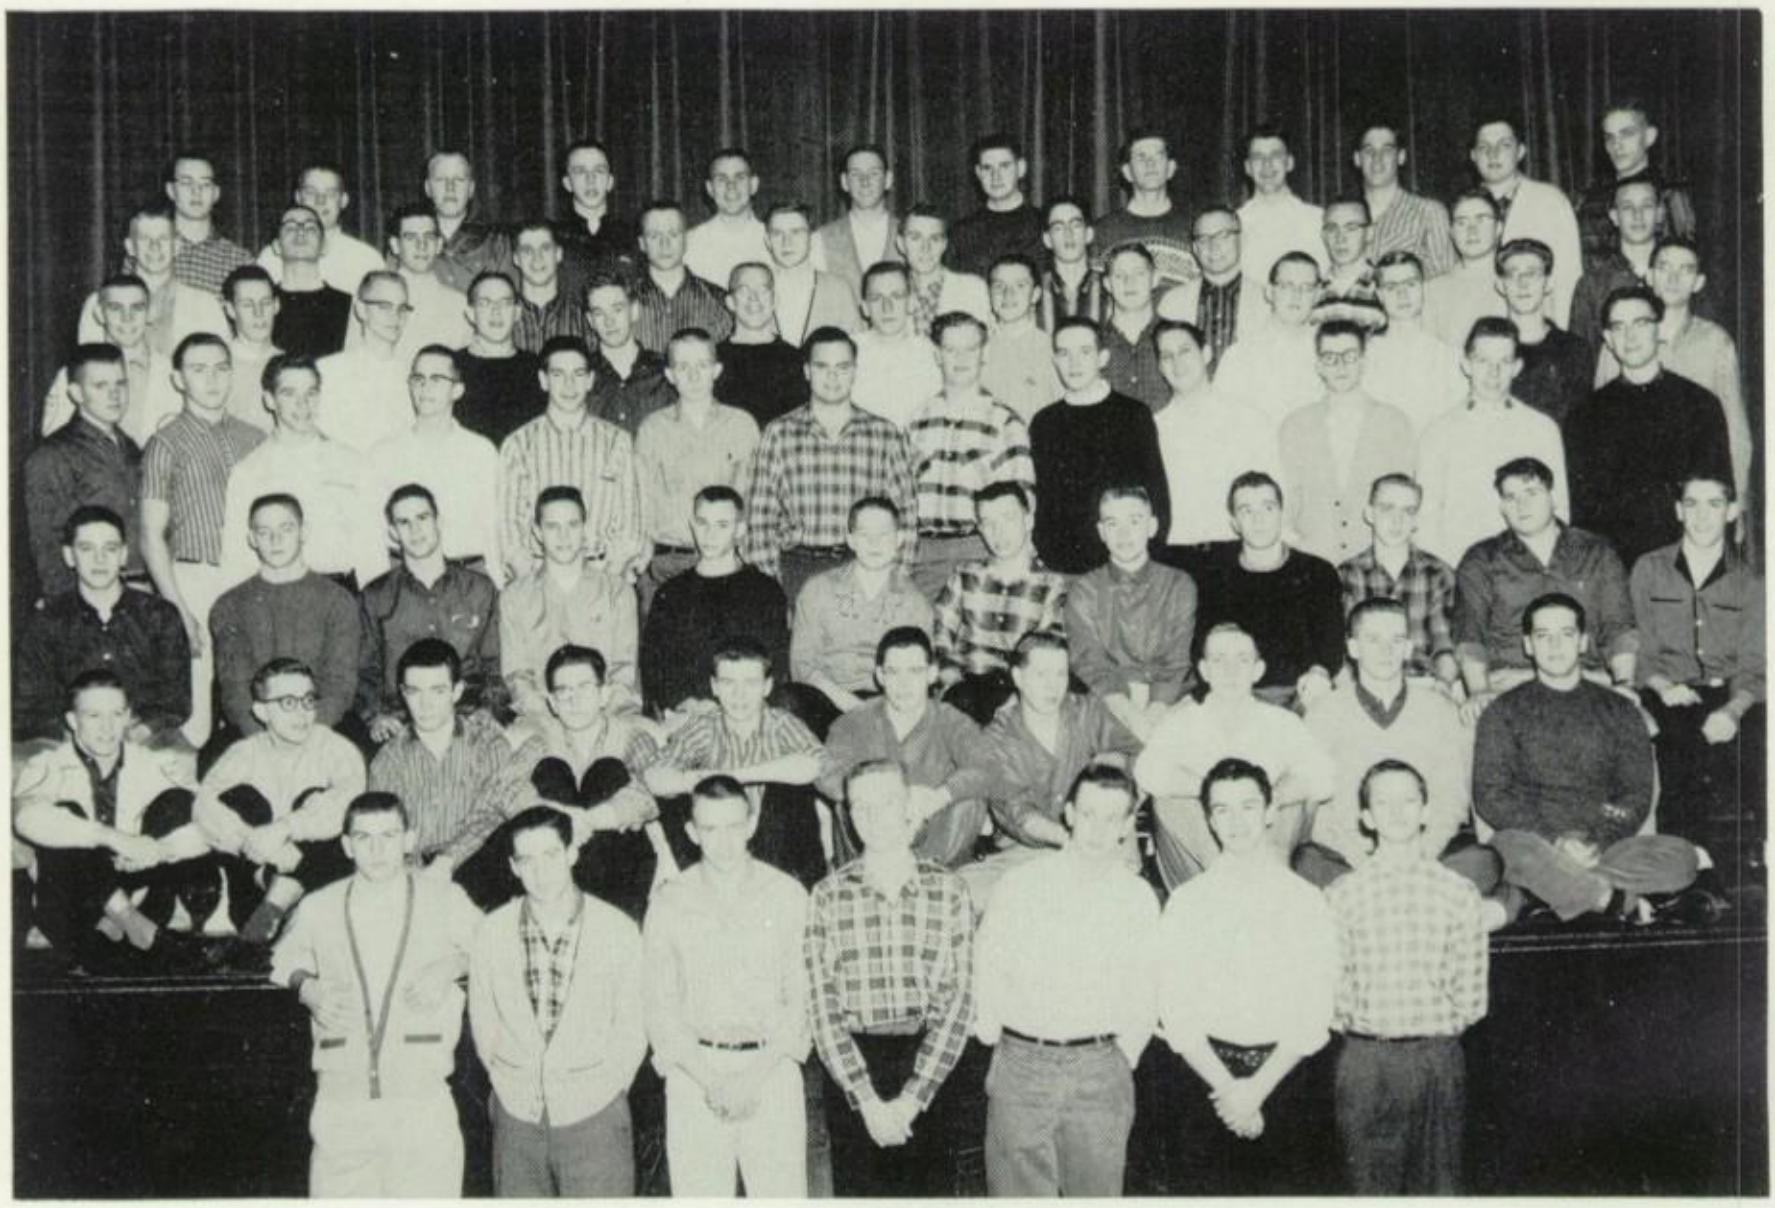
Y-TEEN

SENIOR HI-Y



Devoted to the advancement of the high ideals of clean speech, clean sportsmanship, clean scholarship, and clean living, Senior Hi-Y seeks to provide stimulating and wholesome fellowship, fun, and recreation. Membership in senior Hi-Y is voluntary and includes boys in both the junior and senior classes.

As a club of long standing at Glenbard, Senior Hi-Y is active in extra-curricular activities; in keeping with the spirit of its local and national YMCA affiliations, it enters into community service projects. Highlights of this year's program were the selling of Christmas trees, participation in the Illinois Youth-and-Government, the Mother and Son Banquet, the conducting of Career Night, and the co-sponsorship of the Heart Hop and the Candlelight Service. Complementing these events, Hi-Y enjoyed a hockey game, gym nights, swimming parties, and a variety of speakers and movies.

Under the guidance of Mr. Baer and Mr. Chenoweth, the '58-'59 club was led by Tom Chandler, president; Jim Gruenberg, vice-president; John Pond, secretary; Ken Blotter, treasurer; John Staedke, chaplain, and; Harold Hoffmann, sergeant-at-arms.

Hi-Y is a Christian fellowship organization dedicated to the ideal of clean, wholesome fun. Membership is not limited to any one religion but is made up of boys from many different denominations.

During the year, the boys enjoyed swimming parties, gym nights, movies, and interesting guest speakers. They, in turn, were expected to help raise the money needed to maintain the club. With the cooperation of Y-Teens, Hi-Y sponsored the annual candlelight service and the Heart Hop.

Leading Junior Hi-Y this year were President Bob Pierce, Vice-president Harry Bendicsen; Secretary-treasurer Tim Ayers, and; Chaplain Tom Hynd. Mr. Baer and Mr. Chenoweth served as faculty advisors.

In the first game of the season, Wheaton, our long time arch-rival, fell to the Glenbard varsity squad. Building up a touchdown lead during the first half, the varsity staved off a desperate attempt by the Tigers to tie the score. A blocked kick in the third quarter proved to be decisive as Glenbard beat Wheaton 14-13. All-conference fullback Hank Vanderleest proved to be the nucleus of the Glenbard squad on that exciting night.

Against Arlington, Hinsdale, and Riverside, however, the varsity men couldn't quite cope with the larger and more experienced players. The respective scores were 26-6, 34-0, and 32-7. Maine, Downers, and LaGrange, likewise, triumphed over the injury-riddled squad.

The closing game of the season was played against York, who had received much the same treatment from opponents as had Glenbard. At the end of the first half, the Dukes had a 7-0 lead. However, the bottom fell out for Glenbard as York exploded with three touchdowns in the third quarter. The game ended in a 38-6 victory for York.

Because of the valuable experience gained from this year's disappointing season, Coach Astroth believes that the opposition had better be on guard next year as Glenbard will truly be a threat in conference competition.

Rounding out the year with a hard-fought 6-6 tie with rival York, the ponies finished in sixth place in conference competition. The one win, four loss, and two tie record, however, was no indication of the quality of the team. Rival coaches, especially those played in the last half of the year, stated that Glenbard had the material but not the breaks. The scores of these games further attest this fact.

The opening game was an unfortunate 13-7 defeat at the hands of Wheaton. Arlington and Hinsdale proved unworthy opponents as they bombed the ponies with 44-6 and 34-13 defeats. R-B proved to be a more cooperative group, bowing to the Glenbard squad, 20-6. Rough Maine conquered the ponies 13-6, and, during homecoming, conference champion LaGrange eked out a 20-6 victory over the Bards.

Even though the ponies' record was not too good, Coaches Wiltsie and Hutt congratulated the squad on their tremendous spirit even in the face of defeat.

Starting the year with a good turnout, the freshman football squad had plenty of size, speed, and desire. This year Coach Given, who turned out another fine freshman team, had a superb backfield coach in the form of Mr. Ryan, who was new to Glenbard this year.

The "A" squad completed the year with a five and three record. Three times they held their opponents scoreless. All three defeats, however, could have been avoided, but extra point blues prevailed.

The "B" squad had a fine showing with only one tie to mar an undefeated season. In five of the seven games played, the opponents failed to score a single point. Offensively, the "B" squad had six times the number of points scored by opponents—a mere 18 points in seven games.

Both of these freshman squads can be congratulated on the fine showing that they made this year.

Second best in the state of Illinois!

For the second time in the glorious history of the Glenbard harriers, the team qualified to go down state, bringing back a large, shiny, second-place trophy to adorn the new gym. Also, for the first time in Glenbard's history, the team won the district meet.

Bristling in a depth of runners, incomparable to most of the teams faced, the harriers became the finest team ever coached by the master genius, Coach C. A. R. Johnson. Almost equal to the above accomplishments was the final standings in the conference race which found Glenbard in a tie with Arlington for first in over-all standings.

In the state meet, Robin LaFleur placed fourteenth, Dave Steinback fifteenth, Dave Hollinger thirty-second, Jim Lewis thirty-fourth, and John Staedke fortieth, putting Glenbard just five points from a first-place win! All in all, everyone can well be proud of the remarkable and memorable record earned by this year's varsity cross country team!

Losing their first two men to the varsity team and being handicapped by injuries, the frosh-soph harriers never quite regained their feet after the first two opening meets. However, they always made a creditable showing, even though a seventh place finish in conference standings might not show it.

In the Leyden Invitational, the team copped fifth place out of fourteen schools, with two runners, Dave Steinback and Rick Cunningham, finishing in the top five.

Next year's team will have to depend largely upon incoming freshmen, as most of this year's numeral winners will be graduating to the varsity team.

Rolling to two wins over nonconference opponents, Dundee and Wheaton, the Glenbard Hilltoppers managed to salvage only five from the remaining eighteen games. Despite the poor record, the team had excellent spirit as was shown in the Peoria game. Peoria Central was a team ranked highly in the state. Glenbard, behind by seventeen points going into the fourth quarter, rallied to lose by only a single point. In total games, Glenbard scored 1041 points, only fifty-seven less than her opponents. The two major reasons for the failure of the Glenbard attack were a poor first quarter and injury to All-Conference player Denny Hansen. He missed one-fourth of the season, during which Glenbard won only one game. Final standings in conference competition was a four and ten record.

Next year the Green and White may be expected to be again near the top of the league. Coach Bob Metcalf, who has brought several championships to the school, believes the possibility great as most of this year's first string will be returning.

The sophomore team, coached by Mr. Stevenson, had a rough season. Fighting all the way the team suffered a series of close conference defeats. At the Belvidere Tournament, the Bardlets lost to a good Freeport team in a closely contested battle. The following afternoon, in the consolation game with DeKalb the team lost again.

Although losing, the boys showed fighting spirit all the time. Next year the sophomores together with the returning varsity men will be a hard-to-beat team.

Coached by Don Porter and led by captain Kent Fairfield, the freshman team made one of the finest showings a freshman team has ever made at Glenbard. In conference play they won 5 and lost 2 while in non-conference play they were undefeated, winning each of nine games. Several boys demonstrated enough ability to warrant being brought up to the sophomore squad. Next year the freshman should be a power in conference play.

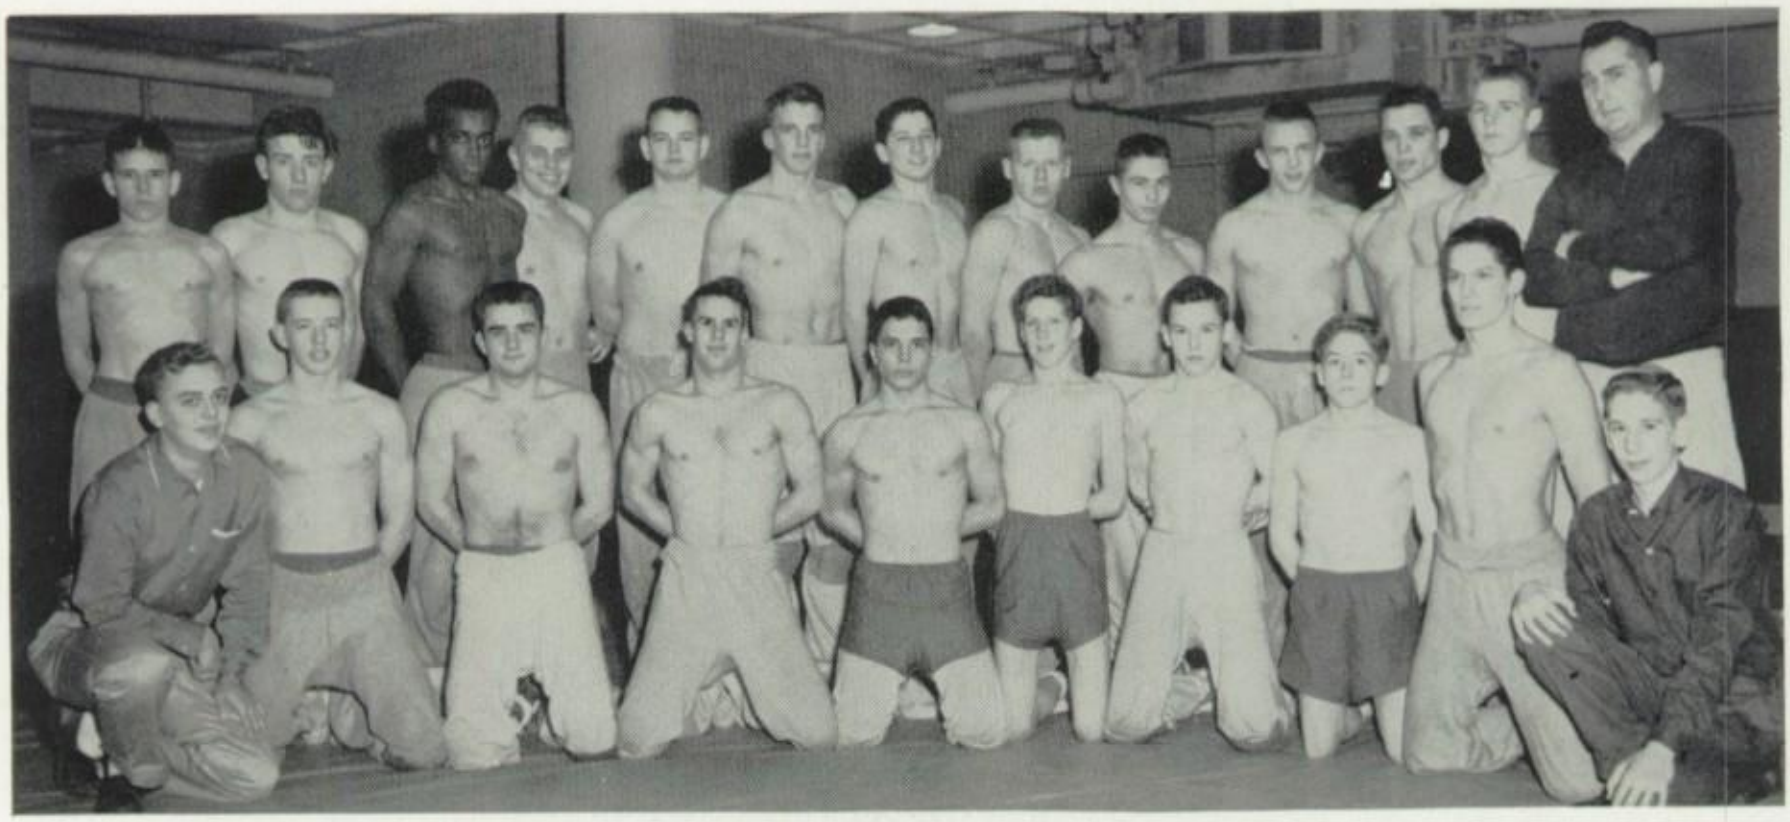
VARSITY WRESTLING



Row 1: V. Pearson, mgr., B. Kroger, S. Ally, S. Capel, D. Rose, D. Phillips, M. Milnamow, B. Young, S. Toussaint, P. Crossland, mgr. Row 2: D. Pfuetze, D. Rigler, R. Mitchell, F. Goers, G. Worsham, B. Capel, B. Wallace, B. Tingler, D. Winge, B. Scaife, F. Rose, D. Birch, Coach S. Stelmack.

Mr. Steve Stelmack, in his first year at Glenbard, organized a wrestling team which was outstanding in that it sent eight men to the regional tournament in its first year. Lacking experience, and depth, they nevertheless proved that these qualities were not always necessary to create an exciting tense wrestling match.

In their first meet Glenbard took on Oak Park. After winning by the close score of 24 to 21, the Oak Park coach said that Glenbard showed amazing talent, especially since it was a first-year team. The second meet of the season was a 45 to 3 win against Geneva. Upon entering conference meets, the grapplers lost a heartbreaker to Downers, 24 to 21. In the remaining games all the scores were rather decisive against Glenbard. The Riverside match, however, was one which could have gone either way, but Riverside edged out a 21 to 15 win.

In the District meet, composed of fifteen schools, Glenbard led by All-Conference wrestlers, Barry Young, 95 pounds, and Frank Rose, 140 pounds, took third place. They were helped greatly by Bruce Kroger, Steve Capel, Dave Birch, and Rod Mitchell in making the year a good one.

FROSH-SOPH WRESTLING

In their first year of conference competition, the frosh-soph. grapplers proved to be lacking in experience, but not in spirit. Finishing the season in seventh place with a 1 and 7 record, they nevertheless fought hard all the way. Next year Coach Willard Lazier is looking forward to a better team with many returning freshmen. Below are listed some of the regulars in each of the weight classes.

GYMNASTICS

Junior Jon Hull

This year's gymnastics team is the first ever presented at Glenbard. Lack of facilities was the primary reason for the absence of teams in previous years. Although the team is only intramural this year, Coach Ettl has a full season of meets scheduled for next year. Among some of the opponents will be York, Oak Park, Proviso, and Maine. These traditional powerhouses in gymnastics will provide the team with valuable experience for future seasons as the squad is presently composed of mostly underclassmen.

Some of the events performed by the athletes are the parallel bars, tumbling, chinning bars, and trampoline. Good performers at these events this year were Jon Hull, junior; Roger Prindiville, junior; John Locke, sophomore; John Shonkwiler, freshman; and, Tom Cone, freshman. Coach Ettl is highly satisfied with the good talent displayed by this year's team. He, however, states that any boy who wishes to compete next year would be welcome.

Compiling a dual meet record of one win and six losses and placing eighth in the conference tournament, the varsity linksters finished in last place in the conference standings. Chuck Reichert, Dave McCollum, and Walter Harrison were the mainstays on the squad, which was coached by Mr. Haas.

The frosh-soph squad, coached by Mr. Metcalf, got off to a fast start with two straight victories, but the end of the season found them in seventh place in the conference standings.

Having had a rather dismal indoor season, the Glenbard tracksters were not discouraged, but rather, strived for more glorious heights outdoors. In an opening meet, the cindermen came through in a flash, placing a close second to state champion Bloom in a tri-meet. Following this morale builder were two seconds, one in the Ottawa Relays, and one at the County Meet. During this time, dual meets were won over LaGrange and Hinsdale, while a tough Maine team handed the cindermen a loss. The team then amassed points to win the Wheaton Relays and the Little Four Meet. In the District, five men qualified to go down state. These state men were Bob Kopp, Tom Henry, Jim Tichy, Bill Tichy, and Frank Cavey.

In the conference meet, Glenbard finished seventh as misfortunes plagued them at every turn. Completing the year, the tracksters scored a rare tie with Wheaton. This did not, however, dull the high anticipation of Coaches Dekan and C. A. R. Johnson for a highly successful season next year.

After three key men were lost to the varsity, a very gray outlook seemed to plague both the frosh-soph tracksters, and their coach, Mr. Wiltsie. However, the depth in many of the events was appalling to the opponents as the frosh-soph team licked Hinsdale, York, Lyons, and Wheaton in dual meets and lost only to the top two teams, Arlington and Maine. Placing fourth in the conference meet, the little cindermen rounded out the year on a good note. A better placing could have been attained, however, if those men who were lost to the varsity had been on hand as they were sorely needed against the combined competition found in that meet.

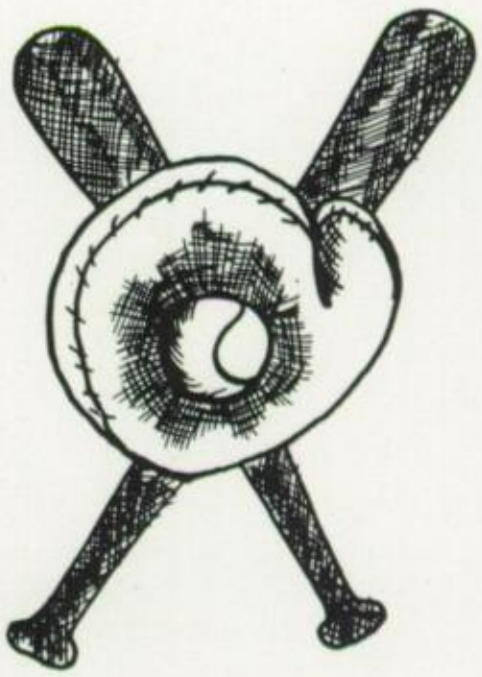
A third in the conference was the final standing of this year's varsity team. This record was achieved in one of the toughest conferences in the state as Maine was state champion. This champion Maine team etched out two close decisions on the Bards, 8-4 and 5-2.

Captain and slugger Bill Wingader, aided by pitcher Tom Thomson, pitcher Jim Lytton, and slugger Hank Vanderleest, sparked the team to decisive victories over Downers and Arlington, 4-1, and rival York, 6-4, to complete the season with eight wins and six losses in conference play, while being undefeated in non-conference games against Elgin and Lake Park.

Aided by four returning lettermen, Coach Astroth believes that next year's diamond squad might well equal the good showing made by this year's varsity nine.



FROSH-SOPH BASEBALL

Paced by the pitching of John Hermanek and Lance Vidlak and the hitting of John Moore and Sy Nelson, the frosh-soph baseball squad finished out the year with an even six wins and six defeats. Nelson batted a phenomenal .538, while Moore closed out the season with a fine. 385. Hermanek proved to be the nucleus of the pitching staff, having an undefeated season and a 1.05 earned run average.

Defeating Elgin and West Chicago in opening games, the squad wound up with a four and nothing record in non-conference play. In conference competition, they steamrolled two opponents, but were beaten by five others to complete the season with two wins and five defeats, and one tie.

Even though their record wasn't outstanding, Coach Kastrinos believes that many of the men from this year's frosh-soph nine will greatly aid next year's varsity team.

Under the excellent first year leadership of Coach Burns, the freshman baseball team wound up their year with an unapproachable record of eight wins and no losses. This included wins over the traditional powerhouses of Lyons, Arlington, and non-conference Proviso. The scores in these games were 12-2, 6-5, and 3-1 respectively. Included in these games was one no-hitter, pitched by Ron Fredericks.

Coach Burns has high hopes that next year's freshman baseball team will be as successful as this year's team.

Doug Walter

Even though the Glenbard tennis men came up with a sixth in conference competition, the placing actually means very little, as five consecutive meets were lost to York, Maine, Arlington, Riverside, and Lyons, by scores of 3-2. In the remaining games, state champion Hinsdale beat the racket men 5-0. The team compensated somewhat for that loss, however, with a lopsided win over Downers, 4-1. In non-conference games, Glenbard showed their power with wins over West Aurora, Blue Island, and Wheaton. The highlight of the year was the remarkable feat of ace, Doug Walter, as he finished second in the state singles competition, winning the medal shown here.

Despite this year's rather dismal finish, the racket men, coached by Mr. Magor, are looking forward to a more successful season.

FROSH-SOPH TENNIS

The frosh-soph tennis squad, coached by Mr. Lazier, wound up the spring season in seventh place in the conference standings. Tying Downers was about the closest the team came to a victory in regular conference meets. Led by Dave Johnston and Bill Jones, the hapless but plucky squad did, however, score one upset victory in the conference tournament.

INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL

The Boys' Bowling League, which is sponsored by Mr. Haas, began its second year of operation by enrolling approximately 45 members in the fall of the school year.

This year the league again had an extremely successful year with several boys averaging better than 150. The league was composed of eight teams. High scorers were Kirby Pehoski with an average of 170, Mr. Haas with 161, and Bob Stoothoff with 159. As in the past the teams led by their captains, bowled once a week at local alleys.

To the theme of "Dreamland Rendevous" the annual Hi-Y, Y-Teens sponsored Heart Hop took place the night of February 14. A star-studded background and a rose bedecked bandstand helped to enchant the evening for the couples as they danced to the dreamy music.

To highlight a perfect evening, the entertainment was followed by the crowning of Queen Shirley Unrath and introduction of the court: Seniors Wendy John and Sherry Johnson; Junior Nancy Johnston; Sophomore Deana Hanson; and, Freshman Anna Hollinger.

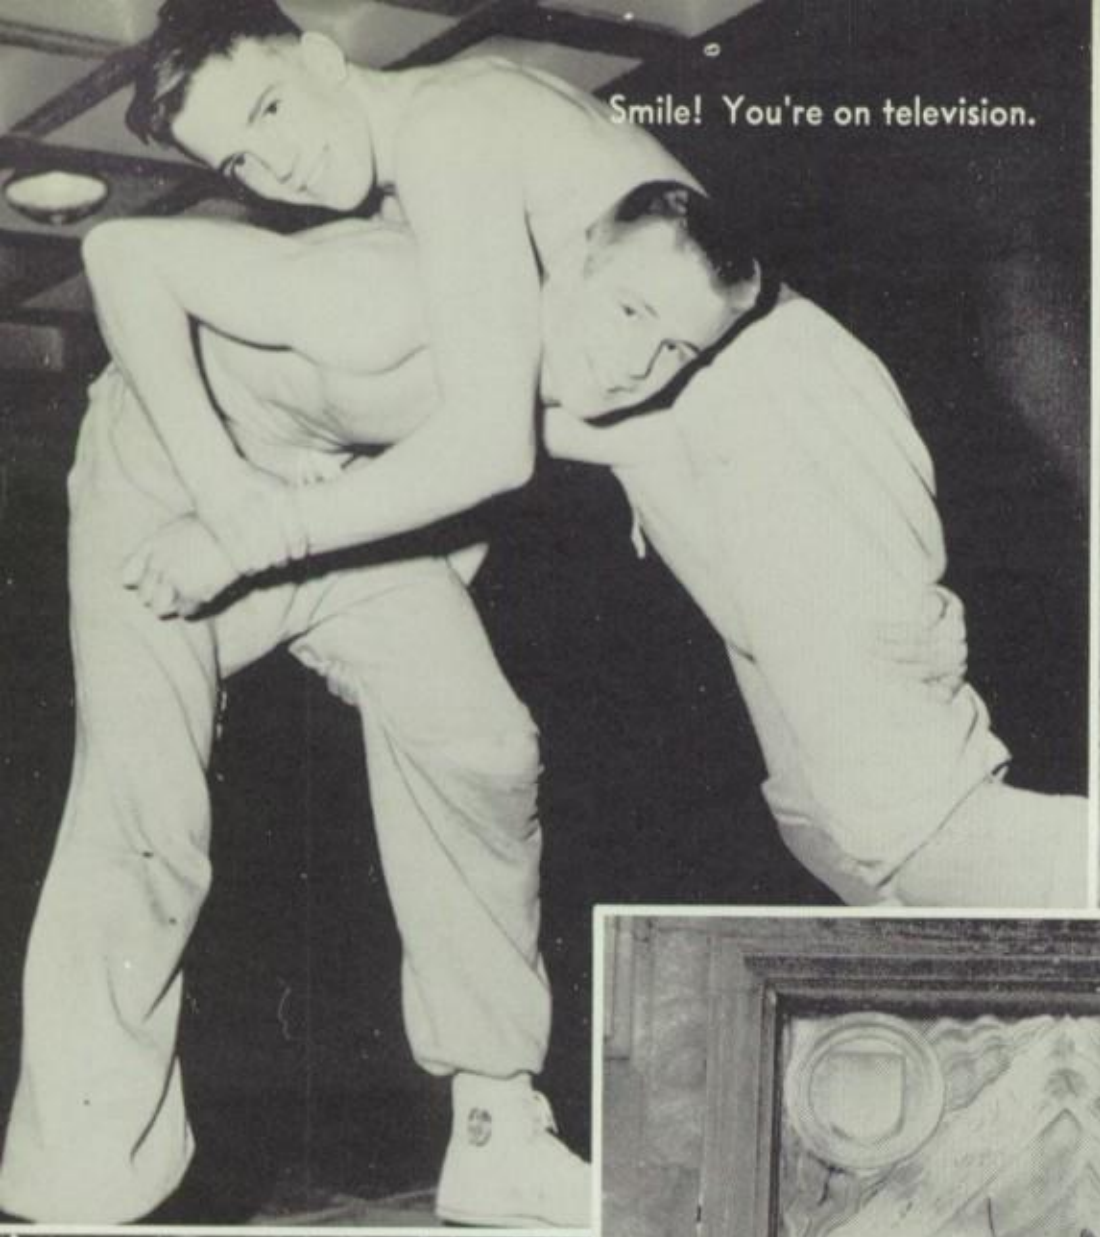
You will?

Anyone for bridge?

The thundering herd.

Kiss me, baby!

What are you girls doing in here?



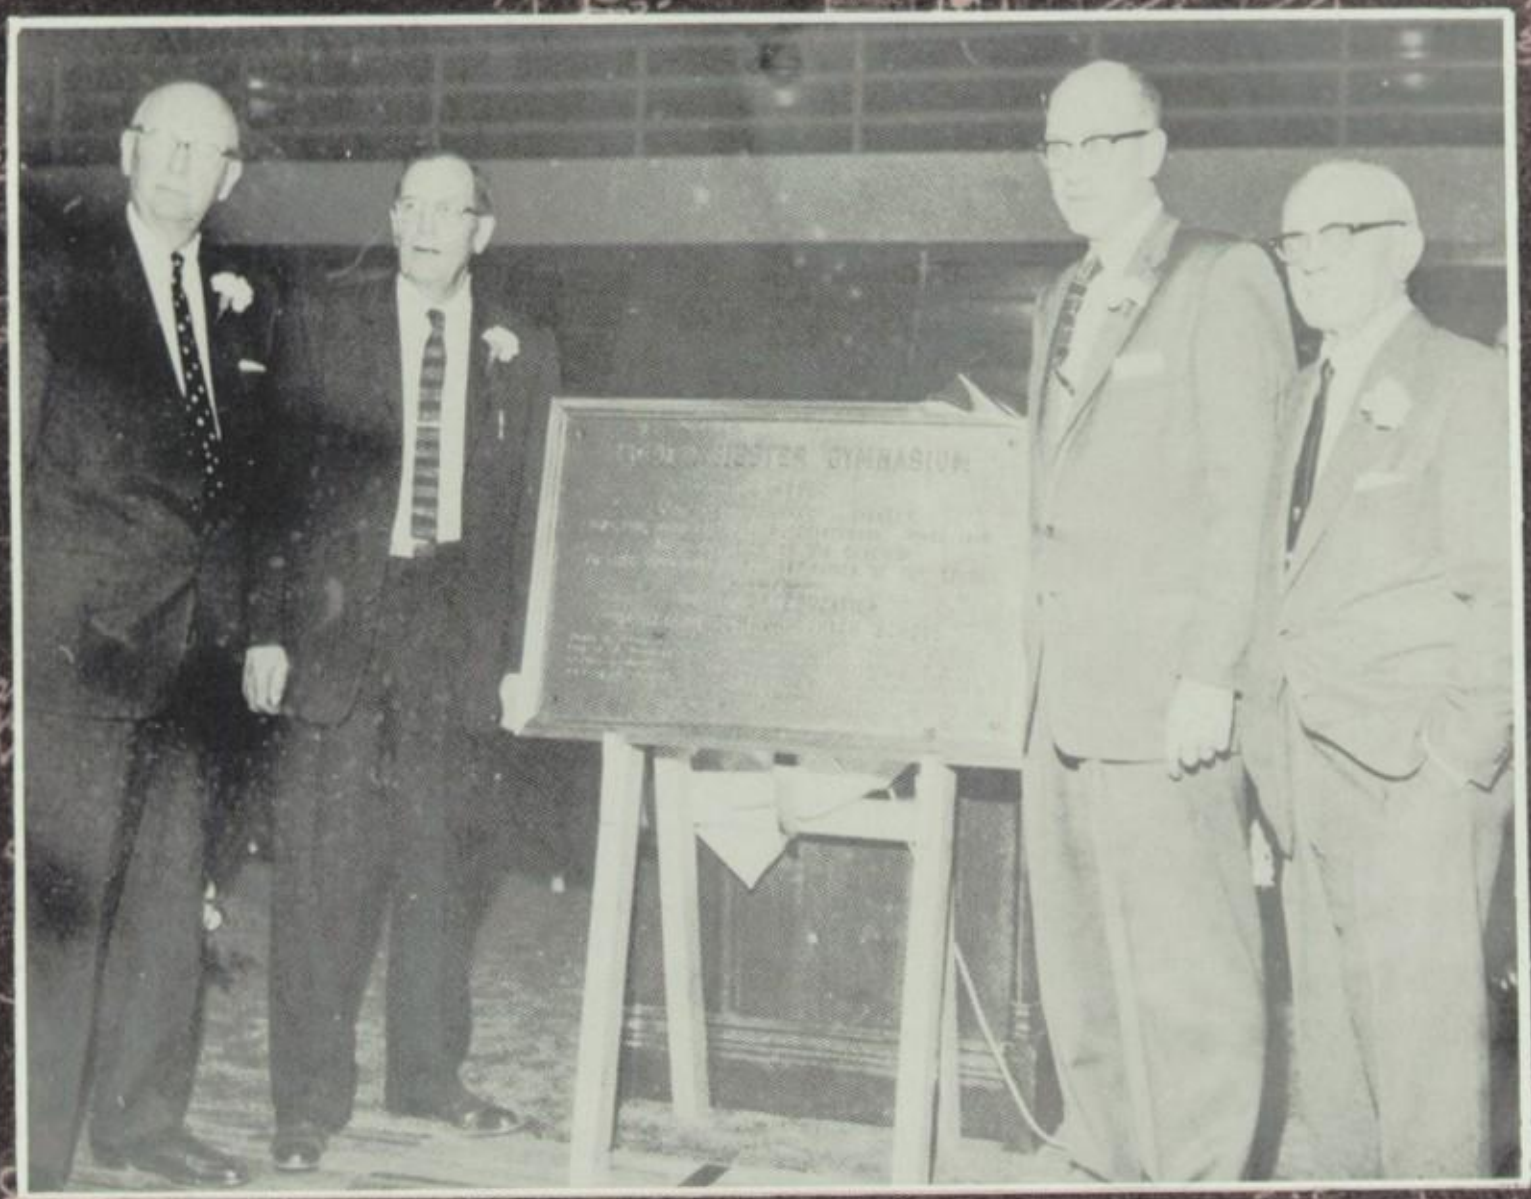
Smile! You're on television.

Here, you take it.

We want a checkmate!

Oh! A Diamond ring!

FRED L. BIESTER GYMNASIUM



Mr. L. N. Duryea, Mr. F. L. Biester, Mr. H. T. Johnson, Mr. C. A. Jensen

On December 7, 1958, Glenbard's million dollar "hardwood palace" was officially dedicated as the Fred L. Biester Gymnasium. In a tribute to Mr. Biester's forty years of service to Glenbard, the community, the state, and the nation; the school board "has attempted to symbolize its gratitude by naming this new building" after Glenbard's superintendent who has devoted most of his life to the education and inspiration of the nation's youth.

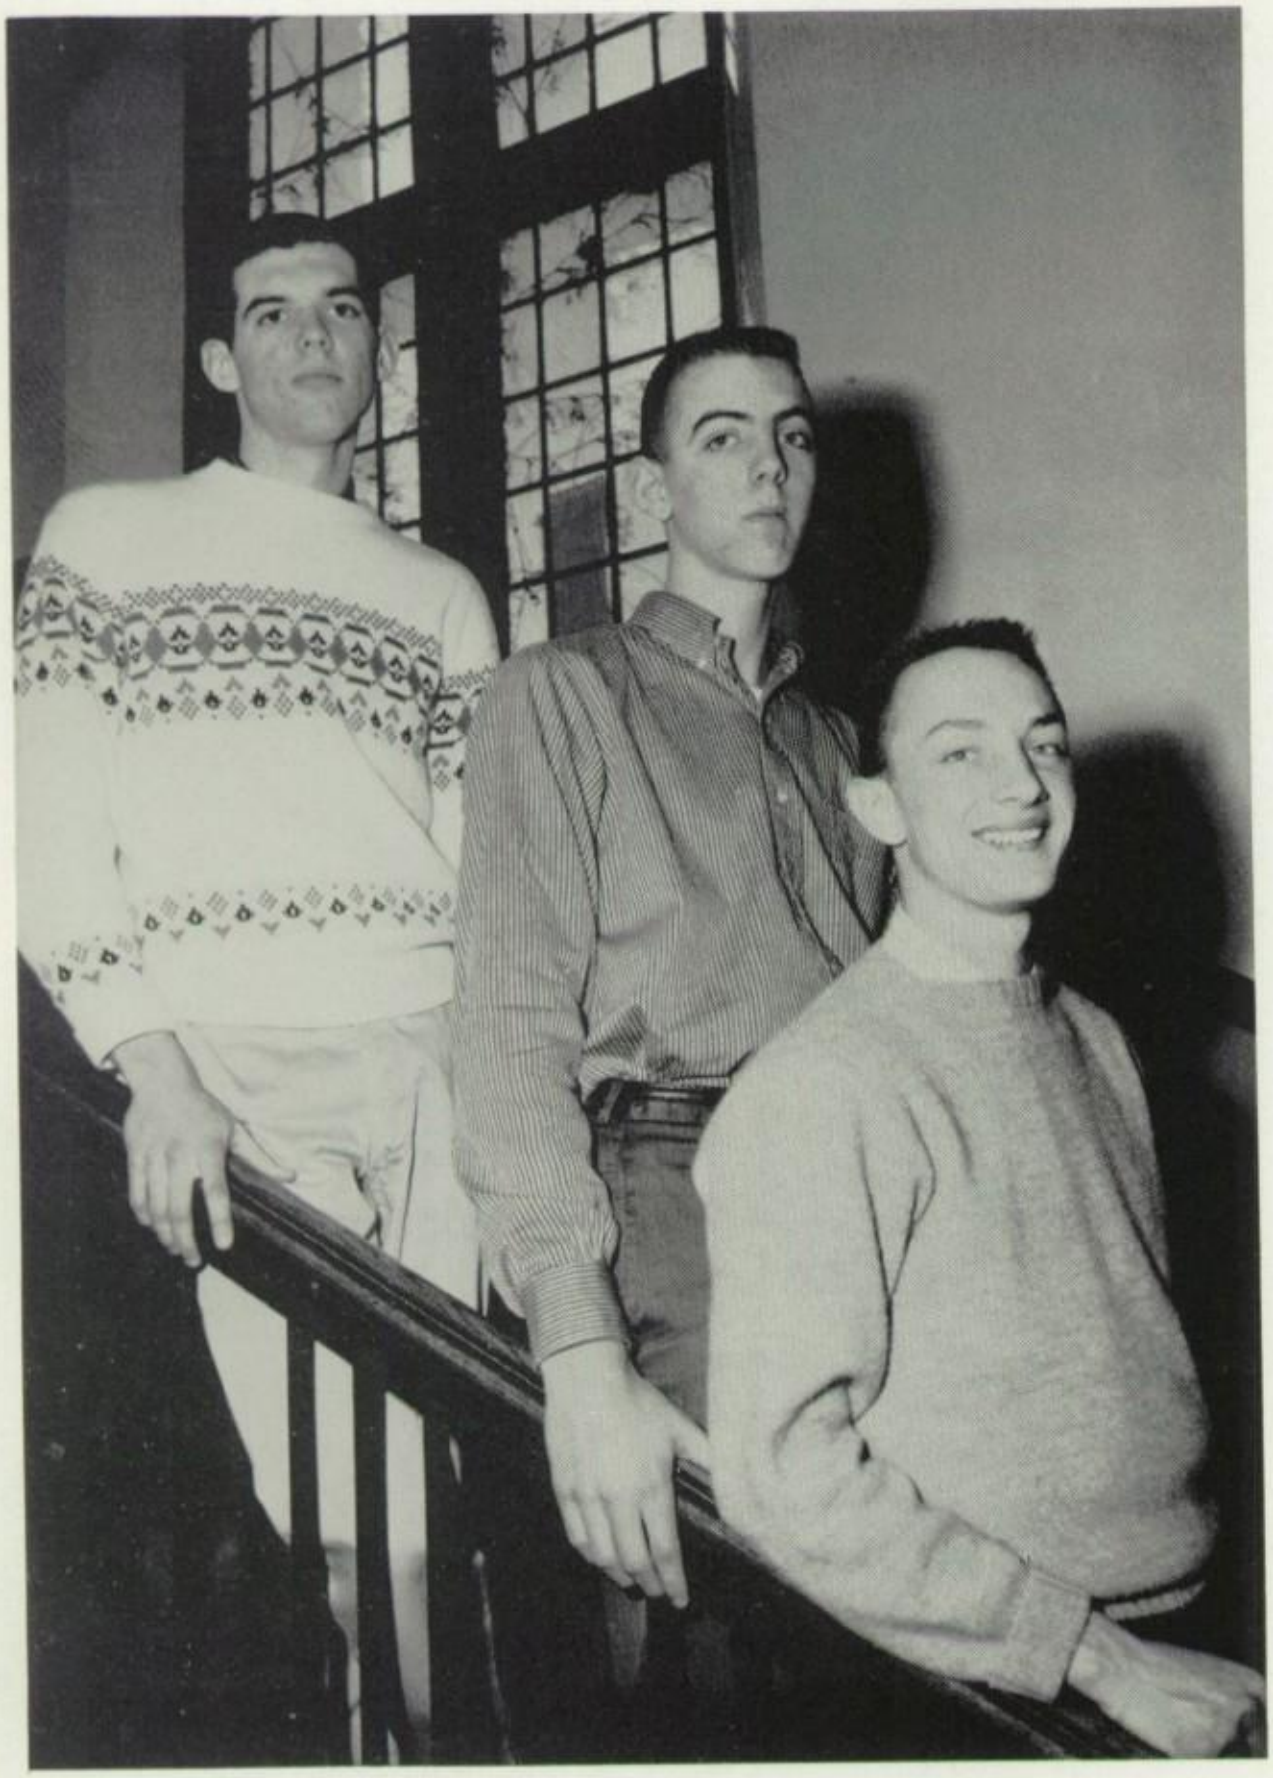
JUNIORS



Bob Early, secretary treasurer
Jim Miles, vice-president
Bob Kopp, president

Opportunity for responsibility best describes the position of the junior class. From the important Student Council elections for officers to the athletic teams, juniors led—or prepared to lead in the following year. New activities—Kits & Skits, Masque & Gavel, Quill & Scroll, and Thespians—were open to them. The Junior Play showed the dramatic talent of this class to the rest of the school. Preparing to rise to the exalted status of seniors, the juniors showed that "They have what it takes."

SOPHOMORES

Kathy Green, vice-president; Susie Mikl, secretary-treasurer; Dick Irving, president.

No longer the immature freshmen of the previous year, the sophomore class joined new activities and made new friends. They campaigned for Student Council, began to work on the PINNACLE and GLEN BARD, and represented Glenbard on the athletic field. Half-way through their high school career, they are facing the challenge of responsibility of the next two years.

Freshmen Section Presidents

The freshmen, Class of 1962, began their four years on the hill with the inevitable practical jokes and name calling of the upperclassmen. Surviving this, they contributed to the spirit of Glenbard by joining clubs, attending the games, and making the honor roll. Highlight of the freshman year was the Student Council campaign for a Foreign Exchange Student, where the freshman class beat the other classes in contributions.

Hi Sue!

It's been loads of fun knowing you this year. I really enjoyed being in Chorus I and English I with you. Stay as sweet as you are now and you will always have lots of friends.

Lots o' luck in your Soph. year.
